

GCE Learning Academy

Building political consciousness for education justice

About the Academy

The GCE Learning Academy is GCE Flagship platform for political education, critical learning, and knowledge exchange.

We bring people together to learn, reflect, and act for transformative education justice.

What you will learn

Our courses explore key themes at the intersections of education, equity, and social justice.

- ✓ Social movements and education justice
- ✓ Education systems and policy in Africa
- ✓ Political economy of education
- ✓ Foreign aid's influence on education financing
- ✓ Student activism and democratic participation
- ✓ Black solidarity and decolonial perspectives in education activism.
- ✓ Global governance and power dynamics in education
- ✓ The impact of neoliberal reforms on education and society

Who can join?

Our courses are open to learners who are passionate about education justice, including:

- ✓ Educators and teachers
- ✓ Students and youth
- ✓ Researchers and academics
- ✓ Education activists and community organisers
- ✓ Policy makers and government officials
- ✓ Professionals from civil society and NGOs.

2026 Courses

Education for All in Africa: A Distant Dream

Foreign Aid and Education in Africa

Economics and Education

Social Movements and Education – Global Perspectives

Student Movements in Neoliberal Education

Fostering Black Solidarities in a Time of Global Anti-Blackness

Neoliberal Influence of the Global North in International Education and Development

Three Decades of Neoliberal Policies and How They Changed Our Worlds

Sign up NOW!

Be part of a global learning community working for education justice.

LINK

Courses available in Arabic, English,
French, Portuguese,
Spanish